

Persons with Disabilities

The court must provide sign language interpreters or other auxiliary aids and services to participants in federal judicial proceedings who are deaf, hearing impaired, or have communication disabilities. Participants in a court proceeding are defined as parties, attorneys, or witnesses.

Locations:

El Dorado (101 South Jackson Avenue)

Fayetteville (35 E. Mountain Street)

Fort Smith (30 South 6th Street)

Helena (617 Walnut)

Hot Springs (100 Reserve Street)

Jonesboro (615 South Main Street)

Little Rock (300 W. 2nd Street)

Texarkana (500 North State Line Avenue)

Building Accommodations:

Building public entry, elevators, and toilets can accommodate persons with disabilities.

Courtroom Accommodations:

Sign Language Interpretation: Sign language interpretation services are available to court participants. Email requests to the court's Access Coordinator at chase_ferguson@areb.uscourts.gov.

Assisted Listening Device: Assisted listening devices that will increase the volume of sound during court proceedings are available for hearing impaired participants. Email requests to the court's Systems Manager at jason_ortega@areb.uscourts.gov.

Arrangements for accommodations should be made with the court at least two weeks prior to a court proceeding.